

Sample Potential Interview Questions

Describe a time when a force beyond your control put you behind schedule. Were you able to get back on schedule? How?

What is your process when a Doctor or Nurse resists your request for information that impacts patient quality?

How do you create a Healthcare audit?

What was your most challenging Healthcare Quality project in terms of complexity?

What went well? What could have been improved?

During a reference check, what do you feel your references will say about your expertise?

During a reference check, where do you feel your references will suggest you need improvement?

Is there anything else that I need to know?